Bio

Natasha Brown has overcome grief and loss, and other past childhood trauma, just to name a few of the obstacles on her journey. She overcame many obstacles in her life which have helped shape her into the strong woman she is today.

Natasha uses the past to fuel her determination for success. Many who know her story admire her strength and perseverance. She proceeded to commit to her education and establishing herself in her community with a soul driven mission to exemplify a positive image.

Entrepreneur & Community Advocate

Natasha is the Founder/President/CEO, A Sister's Keeper Foundation, Inc. She is a solutions-focused, versatile management professional with a comprehensive background in Child Welfare, Trauma Informed Care and Evidenced Based Practices in addition to Mental Health Services and Customer Service. She enjoys tackling systemic issues, developing workable solutions, and partnering with other programs to develop tracking systems to improve the overall health of the community. Natasha received her Advocate certificate from Crime Survivors for Safety and Justice (CSSJ) in 2018. As an Advocate, Natasha is certified to provide information on victimization and crime prevention and provide referral services.

Lifetime Learner

Natasha has a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from Michigan State University and a Master's Degree in Mental Health Counseling from Webster University. In the midst of seeking her BSW, she attended Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia for a study abroad program in Teaching and Teaching Leadership.

Youth Ambassador & Mentor

For decades, Natasha has served as a youth advocate, mentor, and counselor to at-risk youth, low-income families and children within the foster care dependency system.

Inspirational Speaker

Since 2016, Natasha has engaged in motivational speaking engagements that provides empowerment to the youth within the community in Tampa, FL.

A Sister's Keeper's Foundation, Inc

A Sister's Keeper Foundation, Inc. (ASK) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The Foundation was created to honor the founder, Natasha Brown's sister, Shanita Brown. It is our goal to provide comprehensive community resources to youth and their families in Tampa, Florida, with a special focus on girls of color and youth within the foster care system. ASK replenishes the community through engagement, empowerment and educational services.

ASK's mission statement is to promote and provide tools for youth and families to achieve their fullest potential for success. Youth, Families, and Community are the heart of the foundation. Our vision is to sustain the community and to ensure the youth and families are empowered and become effective and efficient within their community.

Youth, Families, and Communities are at the core of our priorities. We fulfill our mission through three main avenues of service:

- Mentorship: Advocacy, Local School Partnership, and Relationship 101
- Mastership: College Prep, Entrepreneurship, and Life Skills/Road Map
- Management: Counseling, Parenting Skills, Awareness for Teen Parents and Family Support

In Memory of Shanita Brown

Project H.o.v.e

An interactive, after-school program with a culturally-supportive curriculum to engage, empower, and instill community values; the curriculum is focused on adults, children, families, friends, and neighbors growing positively together.

In Project Helping our Village Excel youth are part of the solution, they have the power to make decisions; youth and adults work together to accomplish the program goals.

Elements of Intervention

A program designed to accommodate children, youth, and families by providing services such as Mentorship/Supervision, Counseling Services, Educational Tool, Transitional/Recovery, and Dropout Prevention.

EOI's focus is to invest in the youth and families within Hillsborough County and motivate them through empowerment, advocacy, support and to provide meaningful opportunities and build life skills.

G.r.o.w.n Man & W.i.s.e Woman
